

Research Priority List of the Nursing Department, School of Nursing and Midwifery, Ardabil

1. Development and standardization of nursing care guidelines for patient care.
2. Investigating and providing strategies for improving nursing education.
3. Investigating problems and providing solutions for patient education.
4. Professional commitment and its challenges in nursing.
5. Symptom management, including pain, etc., in cancer patients.
6. Physical, psychological, and social care for patients with spinal cord injuries and trauma.
7. Palliative care and its challenges.
8. Nursing care for patients hospitalized in intensive care units.
9. Development and standardization of tools for assessing quality of care.
10. Education in nursing at various academic levels within the nursing department.
11. Investigating quality of life in patients with chronic disorders.
12. Investigating physical, psychological, and social problems in diseases such as diabetes, renal failure, heart failure, multiple sclerosis, and other diseases, and self-care in these patients.
13. Investigating the burden of disease on the family in chronic patients.
14. Neonatal care.
15. Challenges of nursing management in the province.
16. Community health and home care.
17. Geriatrics (Aging).
18. Professional ethics and the healthcare team.
19. Emergencies and medical urgencies.